

In 1901 there were four Church Schools in the Parish — the Whitley Memorial, the Village Infants, the East End School, and Nedder-ton School. The East End School was at the bottom of Front Street East, and shortly after this time was closed. The Statement of Accounts for the Church School at